Regulations for Land Investigation.

- ART. 1. Lands shall be investigated and surveyed in accordance with the present regulations.
- ART. 2. Lands shall be classified under the following designations according to their nature and each lot shall be numbered after the superficies has been surveyed. Lands mentioned under No. 3, however, may not be numbered.
- No. 1. Dry fields, wet fields, residential grounds, ponds and marshes, forests and plains, and miscellaneous lands.
- No. 2. Temple, monastery and church grounds, grave-yards, public parks, railway grounds and waterworks grounds.
- No. 3. Roads, rivers, canals and sewers, embankments, city-walls, railway lines, and waterworks lines.
- Forests and plains to be investigated and surveyed by virtue of the preceding paragraph shall be only those standing between lands to be investigated.

- ART. 3. In the surveying of the superficies, "tsubo" or "bu" shall be employed as the lowest unit for determining the area of lands.
- ART. 4. Land-owners shall submit to the Director of the Land Investigation Bureau, within the period appointed by the Governor-General of Chosen, information with regard to their name and address, and in case of corporations the name of the corporation, as well as with regard to the situation, designation, and number of lots owned by them, also information concerning the four corners, class and area of such lands and the number of "kyol" contained in them. As to State lands, the offices holding them shall forward the information thereof to the Director of the Land Investigation Bureau.
- ART. 5. Land-owners, tenants, or other persons managing them shall erect, within the period appointed by the Governor-General of Chosen, posts at the four corners of their lands bearing an inscription concerning the designation and number of their lands. In the case of lands privately owned the name of the owner shall have inscribed on them and in the case of State lands, the name of the office holding the lands.
- ART. 6. When investigation and surveying are being carried out, the authorities may order landowners in the district where the investigation and surveying are to be carried out to elect two or more representatives of themselves to deal with affairs concerning the investigation and surveying.

ART. 7. In case it is recognized necessary for the investigation and surveying of lands the officials concerned may require the presence on the spot of the land-owners, persons having interests in the lauds, or their agents, or may order those possessing documents concerning them to submit those documents for their inspection.

ART. 8. In case it is recognized necessary for the investigation and surveying of lands the officials concerned may enter the lands, erect marks for survey, or remove any obstacles.

In such cases as mentioned in the preceding paragraph, the officials shall notify beforehand the owners or possessors of the lands or obstacles.

In such cases as mentioned in the first paragraph, if any damage is actually done compensation for it shall be made. Persons, however, objecting to the amount of money to be given as compensation may ask for revision and judgment by the Governor-General of Chosen within 30 days from the date on which the information concerning the amount to be paid has been received.

ART. 9. The Director of the Land Investigation Bureau shall decide as to the owner as well as the boundaries of lands after having made inquiries thereanent of the Local Committee for Land Investigation.

The decision mentioned in the foregoing paragraph given by the Director of the Land Investigation Bureau shall be publicly announced during the period of 30 days.

- ART. 10. The decision mentioned in the first paragraph of the preceding Article shall be given upon the existing state of the ownership of lands, or upon the actual condition of boundaries existing on the date the information thereof mentioned in Art. 4 is submitted. The decision, however, on those lands concerning which the information has not been forwarded, shall be given on the existing state of the ownership of lands, or on the actual condition of boundaries existing on the date on which the decision is given.
- ART. 11. Persons objecting to the decision mentioned in the first paragraph of Art. 9 may lodge a protest with the Higher Committee for Land Investigation within 60 days after the expiration of the public announcement mentioned in the second paragraph of the same Article. Persons, however, not present on the spot as mentioned in Art. 7 without giving proper reasons, shall not be entitled to the right of making the protest mentioned in the preceding clause.

- ART. 12. The Higher Committee for Land Investigation may require the presence of the persons concerned or interested, witnesses, or appraisers, or may order persons possessing necessary documents for giving judgment to submit such documents to it.
- ART. 13. The Higher Committee for Land Investigation shall issue its judgments in a written form, giving reasons, and hand duplicates of the documents to the persons making protest. The judgments mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall be publicly announced.
- ART. 14. The Higher Committee for Land Investigation shall forward the information concerning its judgments, together with duplicates of the documents containing them, to the Land Investigation Bureau as well as to the Local Government Office concerned.
- ART. 15. The rights of land-owners become final and conclusive by the decisions given by the Director of the Land Investigation Bureau after the term for entering protest against them has expired, or by the judgment given by the Higher Committee for Land Investigation.
- ART. 16. In the following cases, with regard to affairs settled by a decision of the Director of the Land Investigation Bureau, or by a judgment by the Higher Committee for Land Investigation, an application for re-examination may be submitted to the Higher Committee for Land Investigation within 3 years from the date on which the decision or judgment was given, provided that the judgment by a law-court for punishable action has been finally pronounced.

1. In case the decision or judgment was given on the consideration of punishable action.
2. In case documents furnished as evidence for the decision or judgment were forged or altered.

ART. 17. The Land Investigation Bureau shall have provided cadastre and maps of lands, and register in them affairs settled by decisions or judgments concerning the investigation and surveying of lands.

ART. 18. Persons giving false information with regard to the matters mentioned in Art. 4 shall be fined an amount not exceeding 100 yen.

ART. 19. Persons failing to give information mentioned in Art. 4 or contravening the orders mentioned in Arts. 7 and 12 without giving proper reasons shall be fined an amount not exceeding 30 yen.

- ART. 2. Information concerning lands owned by "myon", "dong", public bodies, as well as by temples, shrines, churches and so forth shall be submitted by their managers.
- ART. 3. In case information is submitted by those having interest in lands, they shall present with it a written statement giving the nature of their interests and the reasons for so doing as well as documentary evidence concerning the lands. In case there are several interested, it is desirable that they submit information jointly as far as possible.

- ART. 4. Information concerning lands, for the ownership of which disputes are pending, shall be submitted together with written statements, giving the number of the lands in question and epitomized accounts of the disputes, rough maps of the lands involved and documentary evidence. In case law-suits are in progress concerning such lands the said written statements shall contain the principal points, the number, name and date of the suits.
- ART. 5. In case more than two lots of lands are owned by the same land-owners in a "dong", information concerning them shall be embodied in a single paper. Lots of lands entered in the register of "kyol" shall be recorded as such in the information.
- ART. 6. In giving designations of lands in information papers those in local use and suitable for practical purposes shall be adopted. In case lands are entered in the register of "kyol" it shall contain their local name (azana), number, area and number of "kyol" as already shown in the register of "kyol." As to lands newly opened for cultivation, mention to that effect shall briefly be given in the column of remarks in the paper of information.
- ART. 7. A portion of land bearing the same local name and number shall be mentioned as "a portion of land bearing the local name of . . . . . and numbered . . . . . ”.

- ART. 8. If there are any residential lands not entered in the register of “kyol” they shall be represented by the number of the house standing on them. The local name, number and description of the four corners of such lands may be omitted.
- ART. 9. Foreigners shall state their nationality below their name.
- ART. 10. Names shall be written in the same character and style as those-standing in the census register.
- ART. 11. A woman having no name shall give the name by which she was known in childhood and also write below it “wife of . . . . . ” or “widow of . . . . . ”.
- ART. 12. In case information is submitted by an agent or a person interested, the name and address of the land-owner shall be written on the line provided for the name of the land-owner and the name, address and capacity of the informant on the next line. In case the land-owner is dead and the successor is not as yet decided the name of the late land-owner shall be inserted with the word “deceased” placed after.
- ART. 13. In case land-owners, agents, or persons interested are numerous, and their names cannot be contained in the line provided for the name and address of land-owner, their addresses may be omitted and only the name of one of them and the number of all the others shall be given in the line intended for the name of the land-owner, and they shall attach to the paper a document in which their names, addresses and capacities are given.

- ART. 14. Information shall be written clearly and legibly.
- ART. 15. Names in papers giving information, explanation and declaration shall have seals imprinted. Those not possessing seals may put signatares or thumb-prints instead.
- ART. 16. Personal names or appellations, designations, local names and numbers of lands must accord with those inscribed on the boundary marks erected on the lands.
- ART. 17. In case information is submitted by agents, a letter of attorney issued by proper persons shall be attached to it.
